

CHARLESTON EXPLORERS MARINE SCIENCE PROJECT SCIENCE PROJECT MANAGEMENT SHEET

This worksheet is designed to help your group complete the science research project of the History and Science program.

Directions:

1. Teacher, please divide your class into research teams of between four and six scientist.
2. The research teams shall read the job descriptions.
3. Teams will appoint member to one of listed positions, recording their names on this sheet.
4. Download and review the data collection forms for each position.
5. Attend the program. Collect data.
6. Input data in CEMSP and SCORE websites.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT SHEET

PROGRAM DATE: _____ 2010

SCHOOL: _____ TEACHER : _____

Team Name: _____

Project Manager: _____

Assistant Manager: _____

Zoologist: _____

Environmental Scientist: _____

Botanist: _____

Project Manager (Lead Scientist): As lead scientist you will be performing as one of the scientist and will also have the responsibility in making sure that your other team of scientists complete their work and turn in their notes in a readable format. You will have a back-up project manager work with you to make sure this task is complete. You will also speak with the teacher when question or a disagreement should arise. Once you have all the data, with your team, you will be responsible if completing the final report form. This will include downloading the information in the CEMSP and SCORE website.

Zoologist (identification of animals): A zoologist is concerned with the study of the animal kingdom and animal life. You will be responsible for completing the zoologists log. The log will record the inventories of the marine animals found in Patriots Points various collection habitats.

Environmental Scientists (identification of the abiotic factors): this teammate will record the data from the water quality tests performed at patriots point. This teammate it will be responsible for completing the environmental scientists log.

Botanist (Identification of Plants): A Botanist is concerned with the study of plants. This teammate will be responsible for completing the Botanist Log.